

UCLA Extension

Presents...

Enroll Now for Summer 2010 !!

www.uclaextension.edu

Graphic Novels 101:

Using Graphic Texts to Master Standards
in English and the Social Sciences

Have you wanted to explore the use of Graphic Novels in your classroom, but been unsure of what texts to use, or how to use them?

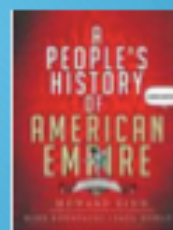

Now is your chance to learn how!

Graphic Novels are gaining enormous popularity in educational arenas across the nation. Learn how you can use this quality, award-winning literature to harness the power of visual storytelling and help students in your classroom master the standards.

Outcomes Include:

- ✓ Study 4–6 award winning graphic novels as a learner
- ✓ Create and evaluate teaching ideas
- ✓ Learn about a variety of graphic novels, and resources
- ✓ Learn how to use GNs to teach state standards
- ✓ Discover ways to use GNs with diverse groups of learners
- ✓ Discover the research supporting the use of GNs
- ✓ Develop a rationale for GN use in your school
- ✓ Share and collaborate with other colleagues using GNs
- ✓ Create lesson plans/units based on a GN you choose

Contact Anastasia Betts or Mary Ann Wilson for more information:

abetts@socal.rr.com mwilson@unex.ucla.edu