

If You Have Voting Problems

Option 1: Call a hotline for immediate help

10,000 trained attorneys are ready to help with any electoral problems. If you have problems at your polling place, call one of these voter hotlines:

- English: 1-866-OUR-VOTE (1-866-687-8683)
- Español: 1-888-VE-Y-VOTA (1-888-839-8682)
- Asian languages: 1-800-966-5946
- ACLU's Voting Rights hotline: 1-877-523-2792

Option 2: Make a report for non-urgent problems

If you don't need immediate help, you can report an issue in any of these ways:

- Phone: 1-866-MY-VOTE1 or 1-567-258-VOTE
- Text to 66937. Make sure to start your message with #votereport
- E-mail the ACLU: vrp@aclu.org
- Web: <http://votersuppression.net/page/reporting> has links to more options

Look up your voting location

Online:

- <http://govote.org>
- <http://vote411.org>
- <http://maps.google.com/vote>

By phone:

- 1-866-OUR-VOTE
- 1-888-VE-Y-VOTA

Know your rights

- Look up your state's laws:
 - <http://www.866ourvote.org/state>
 - <http://veyvota.org/state.php>
- Print a voter rights sheet for your state:
http://aflcio.org/issues/civilrights/vrights_pamphlets.cfm
- Voter ID requirements, state by state:
<http://www.ncsl.org/programs/legismgt/elect/taskfc/voteridreq.htm>
- Register on election day in some states. See if yours is one:
http://www.declareyourself.com/voting_faq/state_by_state_info_2.html
- Student voting rights, state by state:
<http://www.brennancenter.org/studentvoting>
- Voters with disabilities information:
<http://www.ndrn.org/issues/voting/day>

Help in other languages from the U.S. Election Assistance Commission

- 中文, 日本語, 한국어, Tagalog, Tiếng Việt, Español:
<http://www.eac.gov/voter/voters-guides>